

2018 Mid-South Horn Workshop

“American Horn Playing”

University of Central Arkansas, March 16-18

Dr. Brent Shires, host

Sponsored in part by the International
Horn Society and CG Conn.

The 2018 Mid-South Horn Workshop is open to horn players of all ages, with tracks for high school and college students.

Horn professionals from the central U.S. will converge to present recitals, lectures, warm-up sessions, and other fantastic events.

Horn Choirs will allow participants to rehearse and perform together on the final concert!

Competitions include Solo and Mock Orchestral Excerpts (High and Low).

Many exhibitors will be on hand with horns, music, mutes, mouthpieces, the latest gear and even some fashion jewelry!

All the details are available on the website, including information about the schedule, competitions, featured artists, lodging options, and registration. Don't miss this amazing celebration of American Horn Playing! Contact host Brent Shires at bshires@uca.edu / 501-472-3350, and visit

www.arkansashorn.org

Featuring Guest Artists:

Dr. Randy
Gardner,
CCM

An original film about Hollywood's horns
by Annie Bosler

Adam Wolf, of *Rock Horn Project

Tom Varner, jazz artist from Seattle