

2018 Mid-South Horn Workshop Travel Information

The workshop will be held on the campus of University of Central Arkansas, in Conway. The city of Conway is located roughly 30 miles and minutes north of Little Rock on Interstate 40.

For directions to the University of Central Arkansas:

<http://uca.edu/admissions/map-and-directions/>

Air Travel:

The nearest airport is Little Rock Clinton National Airport, which is approximately 30 miles from the UCA campus. It is served by Allegiant, American, Delta, United, Southwest, and Frontier (starting in 2018).

<http://clintonairport.com/>

Other alternatives are Northwest Arkansas or Memphis, both about 2.5 hours away.

Train Travel:

Amtrak serves Little Rock with direct connections to cities ranging from Chicago and St. Louis to Dallas and San Antonio, and points in between. Departure and arrival times are limited to once per day in each direction. Taxi and Uber service can be hailed from the downtown train station to and from Conway. See <https://www.amtrak.com/home.html>

Bus Travel:

Conway is served by Greyhound bus. To learn more, visit

<http://locations.greyhound.com/bus-stations/us/arkansas/conway/bus-station-650750>

Shuttles and Taxis:

A fair list of available taxi services is available by accessing

<http://clintonairport.com/parking-transportation/ground-transportation/>